Paxtang Elementary would like to take a moment to share how wonderful our Authors Presentation was today. Mr. Stephen Kozan and Mr. Tony Maulfair were outstanding presenters. Both provided valuable insight on what it is like to pursue your dreams, especially if you would like to become an Author and/or illustrator.

During today's presentation, 4th grade students got a glimpse of what it takes to begin writing and illustrating ideas by using a simple brainstorming activity. Both fourth grade classes were focused and in tune to the presentation. Every student created a written draft of a beginning of their story. All eager to be selected as one that could be published.

We would like to thank The First National Bank for sponsoring Mr. Kozan's author presentation. Their Zoom presentation captivated everyone's attention, students, and staff alike.

Sincerely yours,
